"The new square creates a centre to the campus and a sense of place for the LSE"
“A distinctive square forms the centre of the scheme, the buildings frame this new focal and meeting point which makes LSE visible to the city.”
"The unique design supports the ethos of LSE by creating exciting formal and informal spaces that encourage staff and students to engage and debate"
“The internal layout is designed to encourage chance meetings, discussion and collaboration”
"Two deceptively simple and infinitely flexible buildings are joined by dynamic circulation and meeting spaces"
"Passive ventilation allows users to control their own environment to create maximum comfort"